

Corus Elite Series 2008

After a successful launch year in 2007 the three race draft legal race series is returning for 2008, designed to give Great Britain's elite triathletes high quality racing on home soil.

- GreenPark, Reading – 18th May

Sprint Distance incorporating the National Elite Championships.

- Parc Bryn Bach, Wales – 26th July

Standard distance incorporating the National Elite Championships.

- Strathclyde Park, Glasgow – 7th September

Supersprint eliminator race with heats and final.

- All three events are scheduled to be broadcast on Channel 4
- 20% of the field will be overseas international competitors
- 80% of the field GB Elite Competitors
- Series prize fund of £60,000, with prizes for the first 15 in each race
- All races will be conducted under ITU rules on international format courses
- There is no entry fee but you must complete the entry form indicating which races you would like to take part in
- All entrants are expected to arrive the day before at the venue where a programme of activities will be held including course recce's, pre-race briefing and civic reception

- Accommodation will be provided for one night only before race day, this is strictly for entrants only, all other costs must be covered by the entrant
- As the demand for entry to these events is likely to be high, you must register for these events at least one month prior to race day. Athletes entering will be seeded by the BTF Standard Distance selection committee with places being awarded to athletes based on their merit ranking. If you feel it would help, please send details of your most recent performances with your entry to support your application for a place in the races.
- Please note, that returning the entry form does not mean you are guaranteed a entry. As this is an Elite Standard event all entry's will be reviewed before being accepted.
- To enter please complete the attached form and return to
